Tiny Prints Teams Up With DwellStudio and MiGi

We've been obsessed with online custom-stationary store Tiny Prints for some time now--we even selected them as one of our top five birthday-party-invitation resources. So imagine our excitement when we saw that Tiny Prints has added both DwellStudio and MiGi to their long list of design collaborators.

DwellStudio's bold, cheerful aesthetic transitions perfectly from their baby and kids product lines to Tiny Prints' birth announcements, party invitations, and thank you cards. MiGi's stationary line features all the vintage charm with a clean modern twist that made us first fall in love with their baby bedding and nursery accessories. Here are some of our favorites from the collections:

DwellStudio's Blissful Bird: Waterfall

DwellStudio's Animal Crackers: Sea Blue

MiGi's Roaring Lion

MiGi's Butterfly Kisses

Check out all of our favorite online stationary resources. Plus, get great ideas for kids' birthday parties.
