MiGi Pinwheel Bedding

MiGi is introducing a new collection of crib bedding. We found Pinwheel at Target online.

We love the mix of stripes, solids and pinwheel pattern in a soft blue and brown. There's a coordinating pink set called Posy but we think Pinwheel would be great for little girls as well.

Both collections offer coordinating pieces including a valance, rug, blanket and mobile. We really like the coordinating lamp, priced at $39.99.

The Target website says none of the pieces are currently available so check back soon.
